"Plein Air Neighbors" Exhibit and Paint Outs

Mooreville Arts will host a plein air exhibit and weekly paint outs featuring Mooreville Arts member artists and Plein Air Carolina painters from Rowan Co. This April 2017 exhibit will be installed in the three front galleries of the Mooreville Depot. Weekly Friday morning paint-outs will take place outside, near the Depot, to raise awareness of the exhibit and plein air painting in general.

The public will be encouraged to visit with the artists painting on location.

A life drawing exhibit, "Drawn from Life", will be installed in the Warehouse Gallery during the month of April also.

Artists may submit plein air paintings finished before the exhibit, from any location but Iredell and Rowan Co sites are preferred. The paintings must have been started and mostly finished on site, this being a plein air exhibit. The number of paintings each artist may submit will be determined by the number of artists participating. This information will follow soon.

This exhibit is not juried and there is no fee, but artists are encouraged to participate in the paint outs, the reception and hospitality, signing up to help with the artwork intake, hanging the art, and publicity. There will be People's Choice Awards given.

Artists will make their own title cards and a template will be provided, in the Mooreville Arts format. Exhibit guidelines will also be sent to each participating artist.

The deposit and docent requirement have been taken care of, although any artist wishing to give tours of the exhibit are encouraged to contact Kay Storck, at: 704.464.1189 or 2kaystorck@gmail.com
